Dear Mrs. Manley:

Frank Spair gave me your letter of recent date so that I might have the pleasure of inviting your team to Trenton for several games this season.

In your letter you ask about playing here at night and since we have already played night games, we are quite willing to have you do so also.

I understand that the terms for your games here have been as follows:

$40.00 for lighting expense.
20% of the gross gate for rental.
Park help to be paid by you.
Tickets--baseballs--umpires--etc. to be furnished by you.

We shall be pleased to continue under these arrangements. Here are the available dates for games in Trenton during May and June: May 21, 22, 23, 24, 29, 30, 31, June 4, 6, 7, 11, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25.

We shall help with publicity in Trenton on your games.

Yours very truly,
